Responsibilities

Our team is hiring a full cycle Bookkeeper/Office Manager to support our growing team. You will be responsible for:

- overseeing all financial operations of the company, ensuring compliance with financial regulations, and providing financial guidance to ownership.
- Some of the responsibilities involved in this role include: bank reconciliations, payroll processing, invoicing, accounts receivable, accounts payable, and preparing year end reports for the accountants.
- You may also be called on to assist with shipping, sales orders, and general ledger postings, updating Spire with daily inventory purchases and managing outstanding purchase orders. This is a senior role that will help our team establish confidence in the financial organizational effectiveness and efficiency of our organization.
- We're looking for a detail-orientated individual with strong organizational skills, and the ability to manage multiple projects efficiently.
- They will have a proven track record of success in finance and bookkeeping, with experience managing budgets, entering financial data, and generating financial reports.
- They will also have a strong understanding of financial processes and accounting software. They will be proficient in Microsoft Office and SharePoint and will possess strong communication skills and an ability to work as part of a dynamic team.
- This role requires initiative and time-management qualities, since your day-to-day work will offer very limited direct supervision.
- Must have a healthy understanding of the technology sector and computer hardware.

Job Description
