Detailed job description

About Us

Oneness. Fidelity. Development. Donation. It is what motivates United Legwear & Apparel Co. to be the top designer, producer, and distributor of clothing, accessories, bodywear, and legwear worldwide. Established in 1998 by Isaac E. Ash with the goal of creating the greatest legwear available, ULAC is a market leader with a wide selection of items for infants, children, teenagers, and adults. We make an effort to provide our goods at costs that are reasonable for families. ULAC is now a multinational clothing and accessory brand thanks to its diligent effort and yearly exponential development.

Our staff comprises committed experts that collaborate to make the firm the finest in its industry, enabling us to produce exceptional goods that guarantee superior client pleasure. Our logistics, distribution, and manufacturing business creates the greatest goods at the most competitive costs without sacrificing quality. Compliance, quality control, and fulfilling every delivery date—whether shipping domestically or internationally—are of utmost importance, as integrity of products is crucial.

We work to create a welcoming workplace atmosphere that is committed to achieving our goal. We are devoted to our people, encouraging their growth and capacity for greatness. We think that everyone benefits from success, growth, and upward mobility when employees give their all at work every day. Every person has two hands, in our opinion: one for helping others and one for helping themselves. We take great satisfaction in our dedication to helping those in need and our value of philanthropy. ULAC funds groups that assist those harmed by illness, poverty, natural disasters, socioeconomic disparity, and other calamitous situations.

We want to talk to you if you share our aim of providing exceptional goods in a culture of development, excellence, and compassion!

Our Offerings

We at ULAC are dedicated to promoting our workers' career development and general well-being. Our extensive benefits package for workers located in Canada consists of:

Comprehensive Benefits Package: Employee-specific health, dental, vision, and life insurance policies are available.

Retirement Savings Plans: Possibilities to make long-term financial security contributions to pension plans or group RRSPs.

Paid Time Off: Personal days, sick days, and vacation time to promote a healthy work-life balance.

Employee wellness programs are initiatives that support mental and physical health, such as counseling services or fitness reimbursements.

Professional development includes possibilities for training, tuition reimbursement, and professional advancement.

Physical Requirements and Working Conditions: These requirements are indicative of what must be fulfilled in order to adequately carry out the fundamental duties of the role. A person with a disability may be able to accomplish the necessary tasks with reasonable accommodations. This position's duties are normally carried out in an office setting with quiet to moderate noise levels.

The person must often sit for extended periods of time, use their hands to touch, feel, or finger objects, reach with their hands and arms, and speak or hear when carrying out the responsibilities of this employment. Every now and again, the worker must stroll. Occasionally, the worker may have to stand and squat, crawl, kneel, or stoop. The worker must be able to move and/or lift up to 25 pounds. Both distant and near vision are specific vision skills needed for this job.

Employment At-Will & General Acknowledgment: This role necessitates compliance with all United Legwear & Apparel Company regulations and procedures. This job description is not a comprehensive account of all the tasks and obligations of the role; it is not a contract, and the employer may alter it at any moment, with or without prior notice. Additionally, all workers of United Legwear & Apparel Company are hired on an as-needed basis, with no set length of service, and their employment may be terminated without prior warning or reason.

Regretfully, no more staffing firms will be hired to handle this available post directly. Our Human Resources team will start the process of meeting new agency staff firms if we decide in the future to add more agency vendors to our priority list.
